LIFE WEST PROFESSOR NAMED ICA CHIROPRACTOR OF THE YEAR

Hayward, Calif., June 3, 2009 —The International Chiropractors Association (ICA) has named Dan Murphy, D.C., F.I.C.A., a distinguished member of Life Chiropractic College West's faculty, as its 2009 Chiropractor of the Year.

The award was presented to Dr. Murphy during ICA's 83rd Annual Meeting in Washington, D.C.

Life West President Dr. Gerard Clum commented, "It is wonderful to see Dr. Murphy and his contributions to the profession recognized in such a meaningful way."

Dr. Murphy is the current vice president of ICA and has served in that leadership position since 2003.

He has been a member of Life West's faculty and postgraduate faculty since 1982. Dr. Clum added, "Dan Murphy is the smartest, most insightful man I have ever met. It is an honor to call him a colleague and a thrill to have him on our faculty."

Dr. Murphy was named ICA's Educator of the Year in 1987, 1991 and 1995. He has also been recognized through numerous "Clinical Science Faculty Awards" from Life Chiropractic College West and as the 1997 "Carl S. Cleveland Jr. Educator of the Year" by the International Chiropractors Association of California (ICAC).

In addition to his teaching at Life West, Dr. Murphy is in high demand as a speaker and has taught more than 1,000 post-graduate continuing education seminars to tens of thousands of chiropractors worldwide.

Life West, established in 1976, is an accredited non-profit institution of higher learning. Currently over 400 students from across the United States and abroad are enrolled, and over 3,700 graduates of Life West are now providing chiropractic care worldwide. The college's Health Center, a public outpatient facility staffed by approximately 150 senior interns who are guided by licensed doctors of chiropractic, provides affordable health care to more than 1,500 patients per week in the city of Hayward, California. The college and Health Center maintain a Web site at www.lifewest.edu.
