LIFE CHIROPRACTIC COLLEGE WEST NAMES DR. MICHAEL GAZDAR AS ITS 2011 ALUMNUS OF THE YEAR

Hayward, Calif., September 22, 2011 — On Saturday, August 6, Michael Gazdar, D.C., was honored as 2011 Alumnus of the Year by the Life Chiropractic College West Alumni Association. Given to him at Life West's homecoming event, the WAVE, the award recognized Dr. Gazdar's outstanding service to the chiropractic profession and his community.

Dr. Michael Gazdar is a 1989 graduate of Life Chiropractic College West and practices in Walnut Creek, California. He taught chiropractic technique at Life West between 1989 and 2006. Now, he travels extensively as the team chiropractor for the World Champion San Francisco Giants. He also authored a best-selling lay book on chiropractic, Taking Your Back to the Future.

Dr. Michelle Arietta, President- Elect of the Life West Alumni Association, stated, "It's really great seeing chiropractic taken to the performance level, especially with such an awesome ball club. Alumni serving at that capacity support Life West's vision of creating a brighter future for humanity. Congratulations, Dr. Gazdar!"

Life West, established in 1976, is an accredited non-profit institution of higher learning. Over 4,500 graduates of Life West are now providing chiropractic care worldwide. The college's Health Center, a public outpatient facility staffed by approximately 150 senior interns who are guided by licensed doctors of chiropractic, provides affordable health care to more than 1,500 patients per week in the city of Hayward, California. www.lifewest.edu.
