LIFE WEST HOSTS ANNUAL HOMECOMING EVENT WITH EXCITING NEW OPTIONS

Hayward, Calif., September 14, 2010 - Drs. Sue Brown, Gerry Clum, Ed Cremata, John Donofrio, Mark Kimes, and many other great presenters will speak at Life Chiropractic College West's Festival 2010 "SPA Days" on Friday and Saturday, October 22-23. Participants will enjoy a day and a half of inspiring guest speakers on the Science, Philosophy, and Art of chiropractic, with optional re-licensure credit available. There will be 12 hours of seminars on Friday and four more on Saturday morning.

For the first time there will be a track specifically for chiropractic assistants on Friday featuring Dr. Pat Gayman, Ms. Lisa Bilodeau, and Ms. Lori Morgan. Social events will include an "Alumni and Friends" reception on Friday. Festivities conclude on Saturday night with the Gala Dinner and Dance, held this year at the Hilton Pleasanton. Life West will honor all reunion groups and announce the 2010 Alumnus of the Year.

As a precursor to the event, on Thursday, October 21, 2010, Life West will host a job fair where anyone looking for an associate, an independent contractor, has a space for lease, or has a practice for sale will have the opportunity to meet current students, recent graduates, or any other alumni who are looking to relocate or for a change in their current situation.
